

Gamania Leads its Subsidiaries To 2018 Taipei Games Show (TGS) With The Largest Exhibition Area

January 18, 2018

Gamania Group announced that it leads major subsidiaries including GASH, GAMA PAY, Coture and Swapub with total 108 booths to demonstrate the achievement towards the Eco-Internet Enterprise at 2018 Taipei Games Show.

Gamania Group Chairman Albert Lu said, “Since Lineage M launched, operation teams have devoted all their efforts, hoping to provide the best gaming experience for our members. Not only Lineage M achieved several records for the highest MAU and PCU in the first month of launch, but our subsidiaries also had great performance and exerted synergies due to the integration of resources. In 2018, Gamania group will continue joint operations and bring more convenient experience for our members. ”

Gamania Group launched the cross-generation No.1 mobile game Lineage M on 2017/12/11, and today announced its achievement of the first month, which was about 3 million accumulated registered users, DAU more than 1 million, and PCU over 410 thousands. Driven by launch of Lineage M, December consolidated revenue hit a record high of 1.7 billion.