November 1, 2018

Gamania Group today announced that it would integrate diversified services such as game and payment to set up large exhibition areas, as 2018 IESF 10th Esports World Championship will take place in November at Kaohsiung Arena. In addition, the company will hold many activities and offer multiple prizes to celebrate IESF held in Taiwan for the first time.

Gamania Group Chairman Albert Lu said, “Ten years ago, Gamania group and other companies jointly established the TESL, which gradually promotes the awareness and development of e-sports in Taiwan. Ten years later, IESF international significant e-sports event held in Taiwan for the first time. As one of the founders of TESL, we are glad to see that Taiwan e-sports market continues to grow and attracts more companies to support it. ”
